ABOUT 100 MALES TO COLLEGE

The 100 Males to College (100 MTC) program helps juniors and seniors in the Worcester Public Schools prepare for college. As members of 100 Males to College, students receive free dual-enrollment college courses, summer field trips, assistance with college applications, and a supportive 100 MTC brotherhood.

100 Males exists in an environment of cultural and academic inclusiveness. Through a beneficial partnership between Worcester Public Schools (WPS), Worcester State University (WSU), and Quinsigamond Community College (QCC), high-impact strategies such as supportive educators, positive classroom environments, and meaningful learning experiences help 100 Males to College students succeed.

CLOSING THE ACHIEVEMENT GAP

100 Males to College was created in 2014 by the Massachusetts Department of Higher Education to increase college access, enrollment, retention, and success for low-income students and students of color, particularly young men, to positively impact their prospects for success in college and career.
