

2021 Latin Heritage Month Celebration Indigenous Women, Colonialism, and Migration with Dra. Rigoberta Menchú Tum & Luis Argueta

OCTOBER 12, 2021 • 11:30 A.M. • BLUE LOUNGE

Lecture will be streamed from Guatemala to Worcester State University at the Blue Lounge, Student Center

Dr. Rigoberta Menchú Tum is a Maya K'iche' Guatemalan human rights activist, and Nobel Peace Prize (1992) laureate winner. She is the leading advocate of indigenous people's rights and ethno-cultural reconciliation.

Luis Argueta is a Guatemalan-American film director and producer whose work has been telling transnational immigrant stories since 1977. His film series on immigration [abUSed: The Postville Raid, ABRAZOS and The U Turn] brings into sharp focus the true human face of immigrants, their resilience and the vision of communities, which recognize the contributions immigrants make to the American society.

For more information, please feel free to email gaddo@worcester.edu or call (508) 929-8049
Cosponsored by TWA, Vice Provost Office, World Languages, and the Office of Multicultural Affairs.

