

The Department of Interdisciplinary Studies, with the support of the President's Office, Academic Affairs, the Visual and Performing Arts (VPA) Department, and the Office of Multicultural Affairs, is delighted to present

Music and Community: creating a place to belong.

A performance and talk by MacArthur "Genius" Award Winner Vijay Gupta, violin, and Chester Englander, cimbalom

Tuesday

Feb. 28

11:30 am - 12:45 pm

Sheehan Hall
Multipurpose Room

Vijay Gupta is a violinist and citizen-artist dedicated to creating spaces of wholeness through music. He founded Street Symphony, a community of musicians creating connection for people in reentry from homelessness, addiction, and incarceration in Los Angeles.

The special event is co-sponsored by the Visual and Performing Arts Department.

For more information, contact
Aldo V. García Guevara, Ph.D
aguevara@worchester.edu

WORCESTER
STATE
UNIVERSITY

